President's Day is February 18, let's get to know our very first president of the United States!

Did You Know That. . .
 *Washington banned cursed words from the army (although he said a lot of the words he banned).

*George Washington was the only president to win 100 percent of the electoral college for both of his elections.

*George Washington was eleven when his dad died.

*Washington suffered smallpox and lived through it.

*Washington's annual salary was approximately $25,000 (about $1,000,000 in today's economy).

*Washington spent 7 percent of that annual salary on alcohol.

*George Washington added the words "so help me God" to the presidential oath of office.

*Washington decided that the president should be called "the president," not "the king" or "His Majesty".

*Washington actually borrowed money to get to his own inauguration.

*Washington didn't take a bath often because he believed that is was unhealthy for him.

*Washington had an 8th grade education.

*Washington died of tonsillitis and pneumonia at the age of sixty-seven.

*Washington had 300 slaves when he died.

"Too often we underestimate the power of touch. A smile. A kind word. A listening ear. An honest compliment. Or the smallest act of caring. All of which have the potential to turn a life around." -Leo Buscaglia

LOVE DEFINED

Love is a fragile butterfly soaring on gossamer wings,
Lifting the soul with beauty far above everyday things.

Love is a towering mountain,
Strong, constant and true.

Lending its strength to the weakest, giving them courage anew.

Love is a tender fledgling needing handling with care.
Growing with tender devotion into full grown beauty rare.

Love is a mighty whirlwind, tearing obstacles apart.
Yet love comes as a gentle breeze and settles in the heart.

“How can this be?” you ask me.

The answer is short and concise.

Love is simply everything – its value beyond price.
