MARGIE NUTT

Margie has been married twice. She has seven children, twenty-one grandchildren, one of whom she raised as her own, and thirty-five great-grandchildren. She was born October 28, 1934, in Cedar City, Utah. Margie played the flute in the Cedar City High School Band. She was also voted most likely to succeed in her senior yearbook. She worked as a candy striper, a clerk in her dad's store and retired after working over twenty years for Parker Packing Company. One of her favorite holidays is Halloween. She loves music and flowers. Her neighbors of fifty years called her the Energizer Bunny. Margie would work in her yard from dawn to dusk. She sewed many of her own clothes and all of her daughters' prom dresses and drill team uniforms.
